Panaji, 17th December, 1976

JUDGMENT

Dr. Wilfred D'Souza had filed this petition challenging the Bye-Election to the 23-Benaulim Assembly Constituency held on the 9th June, 1974. The counting of the valid tendered votes ordered by me in pursuance of the election petition was carried out as per the orders of this Court.

2. In accordance with the order of today's date, the procedure laid down by Section 102 of the Representation of Peoples' Act was followed as after the scrutiny and the counting of the tendered votes and the initial cast votes, there was an equality of votes. Both, the petitioner and the respondent have polled 4651 votes. The tie was therefore resolved by lot. The drawing of the lot was in favour of the petitioner, Dr. Wilfred D'Souza. In view of the provisions of Section 102 of the said Act, one vote shall be added to the votes polled by Dr. Wilfred D'Souza. Consequently, Dr. Wilfred D'Souza gets 4652 votes and the respondent gets 4651 votes. I, therefore declare the petitioner as elected to the Legislative Assembly of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu in the Election held on the 9th June, 1974 for the 23-Benaulim Assembly Constituency in place of the respondent, Francisco Menino J. Ferrao. The petitioner shall be admitted as a member of the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu and the respondent shall cease to be a member of the Assembly.

3. The Election Petition is disposed of accordingly.

4. The Registrar shall communicate this order to the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu and to the Election Commission, to enable them to act in accordance with this order.
